Please share the following with the AAFA Board and Membership as it recounts items of interest that arose during the month of November and looks forward to certain events occurring in upcoming months.

Follow-up on October’s upcoming events:

1. November 14 – 20 - Pacific Fishery Management Council meeting to be held in Costa Mesa, Ca. While there was nothing directly related to North Pacific albacore on the Meeting’s agenda, the Highly Migratory Species Advisory Subpanel did offer comments on the recently completed Management Strategy Evaluation for the fishery. Federal Register Items of Interest:

In past reports we have highlighted actions taken against Canadian importers and industry by the International Trade Administration of the Department of Commerce and The United States International Trade Commission. The intent was to show how there are some tensions between the two Nations on certain trade issues. Rather than take up space delving into each – we will simply list the publication date in the Federal Register, the topic of the publication and provide a link if the reader wishes to learn more about the publication.

Date	Topic	Link
Nov 8	Dept of Commerce determines certain softwood lumber products from Canada is being, or is likely to be, sold in the United States at less than fair value (LTFV).	https://www.gpo.gov/fdsys/pkg/FR-2017-11-08/pdf/2017-24203.pdf
